Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The people of the state of South Dakota have been fortunate to be the recipients of the endeavors of a special class of individuals devoted to making our state the great place it is to live through their service; and,

Whereas, In August 1980, Nancy Kuiper began employment with the Department of Revenue. Following a short break in service she returned to the Department of Revenue for a few months. In May of 1985, Nancy began her employment with the Department of Transportation as staff assistant, and over the years was promoted to internal auditor; and,

Whereas, In the course of her career, Nancy has provided administrative support to many staff persons, given invaluable assistance to her fellow co-workers, audited, saved the state thousands of dollars in overpayments, and recovered over $1,000,000 in property damage claims; and,

Whereas, Nancy has been a loyal employee, kind and compassionate co-worker, and will be truly missed upon her retirement; and,

Whereas, Nancy has been a devoted and loving mother to Kim and Karla, and grandmother to Chelsea, and has now expressed an interest in spending more time with her family and pursuing new adventures; and,

Whereas, Nancy has served the people of this great state for 20 years and 6 months, always exhibiting the qualities of professionalism, integrity, and honor, and is choosing now to retire:

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of this outstanding South Dakotan:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 16, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join with her co-workers, family, and friends in congratulating her on this well-earned retirement, and a long, healthy, peaceful and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of October in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
